Foreword

Here is a record of the 1951-1952 school year at Holliday: teachers and classmates . . . the boys who made all-district in football . . . the girl who could play the piano so well . . . the teacher who understood when John had the measles and Jane had the mumps . . . Yes, all these and many others are recorded in this yearbook of school memories.

We, the members of the 1952 Eagle Staff, wish to express our most sincere thanks to Mr. Ralph M. Kerr, our former principal, who was a source of inspiration in helping plan and prepare this and all other annuals heretofore published by our school.

In years to come we hope that this year will be a bright spot in your calendar of memories.

The son of a Methodist minister. Mr. Kerr received his high school education in the various communities where his father served as pastor. He graduated from Paris, Texas, High School.

He later graduated from Paris Junior College, and received his bachelor of science degree from Texas Wesleyan College at Fort Worth. Dear Mrs. Stevens,

I have enjoyed being in your class. I hope I pass and if I don't I hope I will still be in your class.

Love always,

Dear Mrs. Stevens,

I have enjoyed being in your class. When I was sick I missed you very much. I hope you will teach like you taught me. And be nice to them.

Love always
